

Hark, shepherds, how the angels sing

Hark, shepherds, how the angels sing,
For joy when Christ was born,
For joy when Christ was born;
A spotless virgin did Him bring,
A spotless virgin did Him bring,
Into the world this morn, into the world this morn,
Into this world this morn.

Our Saviour's born, long since foretold,
Born of a virgin maid,
Born of a virgin maid,
Foreshown by prophecy of old,
Foreshown by prophecy of old;
And in a manger laid, and in a manger laid.
And in a manger laid.

Wise men from far led by a star
Which was a faithful guide,
Which was a faithful guide;
Until they came where Jesus was,
Until they came where Jesus was,
And him they glorified, and him they glorified,
And him they glorified.
